The Science of Survival Weekend, featuring the Zombie Apocalypse at TELUS World of Science – Edmonton (TWOSE)

Edmonton, AB – May 23, 2017 – Join us for the Zombie Apocalypse, a terrifying adult only event: June 3, 2017. This is a fully-facilitated simulated three-part event, lasting a total of 3.5 hours. The Zombie Apocalypse begins with lab analysis (may or may not include brains) and defense training, followed by the fight of a lifetime -- against Zombies and the clock -- in order to assemble the cure, before it's too late.

Guests must register for 1 of 3 different start times: 6:30 p.m., 8:30 p.m. or 10:30 p.m.

Please note: Fighting zombies can be a physically demanding job. We recommend participants be in good general health and physical condition.

To purchase tickets visit twose.ca/zombies or call 780-451-3344.

S.O.S Weekend for Everyone: Saturday, June 3 and Sunday, June 4:

Families are invited to embark on a journey of survival, putting their deepest fight or flight instincts to the ultimate test, during TELUS World of Science – Edmonton's (TWOSE) Science of Survival (S.O.S) weekend.

Work together – or as individuals – to complete a variety of tasks, challenges and activities. The goal: complete one of three scenarios in order to receive a reward: Liquid Nitrogen Ice Cream with a 'protein' topper (a.k.a. bugs!).

Challenges include:

- Survive being stranded on an island: design and build an item from a random supply of materials.
- Survive a windstorm, flood or earthquake! Spin the Big Wheel – if you dare – to find out which natural disaster you must engineer your escape from.
- Program robots to complete a variety of tasks. If you fail? Destruction ensues.
- & so much more!

Visit twose.ca/sos for full schedule.

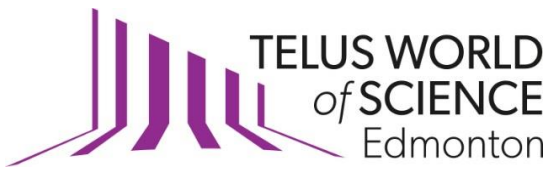

All S.O.S activities are included in Science Centre Admission. Excludes IMAX® films.
