

Water into Wine? 'Where Science Meets Cocktails' at TELUS World of Science – Edmonton

Thursday, September 21, 2017

Edmonton, AB – September 18, 2017 – This Thursday, September 21, TELUS World of Science – Edmonton is hosting 'Where Science Meets Cocktails' and there are still a limited number of tickets available. This unique, adults-only event is a fresh-twist on the science centre's annual LUMEN fundraising event, and will see the science centre transform into Edmonton's largest food and drink laboratory for one night only.

Event highlights include – but are not limited to:

- Glow Dome: outfitted with a live DJ and black lights, guests will enjoy an unforgettable laser light-show, glowing furniture, exciting flare bartending and of course, tantalizing cocktails.
- Three Words: Alcohol. Fire. Tube. To learn more, you'll have to attend the party!
- Spectacular Culinary Creations: from delectable dishes like mushroom & spinach wellington to braised beef brisket bahnmi, and roasted vegetable tart tatin, sushi, tagliata and more...
- To-Die-For Desserts: like passion fruit and bourbon nitro-dragons prepared in liquid nitrogen and vacuum sous vide watermelon with midori, simple syrup, and star anise...
- Massive Synchronized Balloon-Pop: amazing prizes to be won, inside every balloon!
- Electricity Alley and Water into Wine: throughout the night, the science centre's very own staff scientists will perform incredible science demonstrations and experiments. Guests will become immersed in the action, as they roll up their sleeves and participate.

Tickets include all food and drinks, and a limited number of VIP tickets are still available. Visit twoselumen.com to purchase tickets or call 780-451-3344. All proceeds in support of science education in our community.
