

Andromeda

Visibility from Edmonton, AB
 53.5444° N, 113.4909° W
 June - December

Magnitudes of Stars
1-2	2-2.5	2.5-3	3-4	4-5	5+
●	●	●	●	●	●

For star coordinates visit:
worldwidetelescope.org

In Greek Mythology, Andromeda was the daughter of Cassiopeia and Cepheus, and wife to Perseus. She was chained to a rock to be eaten by the sea monster Cetus as punishment for Cassiopeia enraging Poseidon with the boast that her daughter was more beautiful than the Nereids/sea nymphs. The constellation also appeared in earlier Babylonian astronomy as a fertility goddess, sometimes called the Lady of the Heavens.