

Three Alberta Teachers Recognized for Bringing Science to Life! 2025 Inspiring Educator Award

EDMONTON, AB – September 25, 2025 – The Edmonton Space & Science Foundation is proud to announce the recipients of the 2025 Inspiring Educator Award, a recognition that celebrates teachers who spark a passion for science discovery in their students.

Created to mark the 40th anniversary of TELUS World of Science – Edmonton, the award received nominations until April 18, 2025, with winners officially selected in May. This year’s award honours three outstanding teachers from Northern Alberta:

- Hannah Ludlage, Junior High Teacher, Cold Lake Junior High (Cold Lake)
- Chayce Moon, Elementary Teacher, Glendale Sciences and Technology School (Red Deer)
- Julie Arsenault, Junior High Teacher, Michael Strembitsky School (Edmonton)

Each recipient will receive a $1,000 classroom award to enhance science learning and one complimentary TELUS World of Science — Edmonton field trip, delivered either in person or virtually.

“The Inspiring Educator Award shines a spotlight on teachers who go above and beyond to make science engaging, accessible, and exciting for their students,” said Constance Scarlett, President & CEO of TELUS World of Science – Edmonton. “We look forward to seeing how this year’s recipients use their classroom funds and Science Centre programs to continue their efforts.”

As the supporting sponsor of the award, EPCOR recognizes all the teachers who work diligently to inspire their students and congratulates this year’s recipients.

“Teachers have a profound impact on how young people see the world and their potential within it,” said Kirstine Hull, Senior Vice President, Electricity Services. “At EPCOR, we believe in nurturing the next generation of scientists and innovators. Supporting the Inspiring Educator Award is one way to celebrate the outstanding teachers who make that possible.”

Honouring these educators shines a light on the power of passionate teaching to shape the future of science. Learn more at twose.ca/InspiringEducatorAward.
